The Morning Hunt:

Typically the morning hunt is designated for goose hunting. After breakfast you will be escorted to your hunting blinds in the pursuit of the Canada Goose, White fronted Goose and odd Snow Goose that fly through. The morning hunts last only a few hours as limits are often taken in a short period of time.

The Afternoon Hunt:

Late afternoon and evening pass shoot is typically a duck hunt. This is a very exciting hunt, and with a very wide variety of waterfowl species in this flyway, you may have quite a mixed bag.
